

WOK AND ROLL

MODERN ASIAN DICE GAME

美 食 佳 搖

By Daryl Chow

APPETISERS

開胃菜

You and your fellow players are gathering ingredients to cook dishes and hone your menus to become the best restaurant in town. Wok and roll your way to the tastiest menu, and keep the freshest ingredients for yourself while denying your fellow chefs!

GAME COMPONENTS

- 5 double-sided player menus
- 5 erasable markers
- 6 ingredient dice (4 white, 2 red)
- 1 dice wok-tray
- 8 House Special tiles

AIM OF THE GAME

To score the most taste points for your restaurant by picking the right ingredients and cooking the best dishes.

FLOW OF THE GAME

The game takes place over a number of turns until the game end condition is met. Each turn, the player on turn goes to the market (roll the dice). All players will then use the ingredients from the market to cook dish servings (cross off their menu). The game ends in the turn when one player completes cooking 3 dishes or dish platters.

2 WAYS TO WOK AND ROLL

The rules below are for the Simple Menu. The rules for the Expert Menu on page 8 will explain which elements are different from the Simple Menu.

GAME SETUP

1. Give each player a menu and marker. Flip to the Simple Menu and give your restaurant a name on the top right.
2. Determine a starting player, preferably the last person to have cooked, and give them the 6 dice and the dice wok-tray.
